MultiOrgasmic

A how-to guide to total pleasure, the stuff of your wildest dreams

“The hardness of his hot, throbbing cock pressed deeper and deeper into me, making the juices flow and the heat of my pussy rise and spread through my whole body. I started to pump, shaking and bouncing with the rhythm of his strokes. He pulled back slowly, moving firmly and surely against my clit, teasing and touching, my body becoming electric with the feel of him. He plunged deep into me again, and as he drew back I uncontrollably pounded myself up to him and exploded. It was a climax so violent, so intense, that I thought I would go mad with pleasure. But he did not stop.

“His cock kept moving within me, my own pleasure driving out all sensations except the pure ecstasy of the moment—until I came again, and then again, in orgasmic waves that left me shivering in his arms. At last I knew the joys and fears of being totally possessed by my passions.”

That sounds like a sex fantasy that’s almost too good to be true, doesn’t it? You’ve convinced yourself that an experience like this will never happen to you. But it can and does happen... if you really want it to.

How? That is as individual as the people who are involved in the experience. There is no set pattern or “right” way to achieve an orgasm, whether it’s once or a dozen times. The real key to multiple orgasms is exactly that; no one certain way, knowing—and accepting—there is no “magic” position, cock or pussy that can “give” you multiple orgasms.

The above account of a woman’s first dynamite experience appeared in my inbox one day. When I read the letter I got so hot I thought I’d burn up before I saw her again, because she was writing to me about her feelings with me!

When I saw her that night, we were both ready to experience the same heavy feelings again. No such luck; something just didn’t click. What went wrong? I wondered. We did everything we had done before. Then, that clicked. Maybe the real thing that went wrong was that we did do it all just as we had before. I decided not to worry, but to concentrate on what gave the most pleasure to both of us. Suddenly, exciting things started to happen again. But I learned some very important things.

For instance, multiorgasms is not something you can make happen. There are no guarantees that once it's happened, it will happen every time, or even one more time. You have to create the situation that will allow them to happen spontaneously. The same old routine just won't do it. You have to work at it, not like it's a job, but as though it's a work of art... which is exactly what it is. Creating the sensual environment for multiple orgasms is a real art that requires more than just a little foreplay and a fast fuck.

"Man, was she a good lay. I tell you, we did it three or four times the other night, and she came before me all but one time. And that time, I kept on going until she really went crazy. Damn, that was something."

Those remarks were overheard in a locker room a few months ago. It sounded more like fantasy than reality. First, such an insensitive approach and "easy macho" kind of talk makes me tend to disbelieve that he did more than get his rocks off. If you are really into the passion, love and caring of turning someone on, who's counting and making notes about how good, how fast or how intense the whole thing really is?

"Do you come a lot when you're fucking?" I asked a very upfront girlfriend of mine. "Not a lot," was her reply. "Actually, I get a bigger buzz when I do it to myself with a vibrator. But just getting a buzz isn't what I'm after."

"What are you after?" I asked, getting a bulge in my jeans as I spoke. "I like being totally involved, like having him really turn me on all over. Some guys play around, touch and caress, then maybe go down on me for a minute, then can't wait to get inside me. That doesn't do it for me. One guy I lived with for about a year would go down and eat me out for what seemed like hours. I would always get a real rush from him, but it was still sort of detached. I never really felt completely turned on, and if he fucked me then my second orgasm was never the kind that made fireworks or anything."

It occurred to me that two things emerge from these accounts. One is the aspect of total and complete involvement with your partner. The other is the new experience, something that hasn't happened before. I decided to try it for myself in my bedroom laboratory.

Mere foreplay or fucking involving one or more orgasms isn't really any kind of goal. Erotic passion and mind-blowing pleasure are the goals. Several climactic highs for both of us. Without going through a blow-by-blow account, here's what we did:

We touched each other all over, each exploring everything from tongue-teasing to nibbles and pinches. I rubbed her gently and slowly, felt the warm wetness of her pussy on my thighs as I pressed into her while I nuzzled her neck and lightly ran my fingers down her back at the same time.

She was also enveloping me with her body, as she slid her tongue down my ribs and across my legs. She took my cock between her breasts and pressed it with her undulating shoulders until I thought I was going to explode right then and there. We relaxed with a few tickles and giggles, and I paid as much attention to the rest of her body as I did to her lovely moist pussy. We hadn't said a word and we let our bodies speak for us.

Suddenly she cried out, "I'm gonna come right now! Oh, god, I'm coming!" I sat back on her thighs, holding her arms above her head as they grasped at the headboard of the bed. She sighed and smiled, and I swiftly moved inside her. I was still really hot and wasn't sure how long I could hold on myself, not that I really cared at that moment. We slid smoothly from one position to another, seeming to sense who was moving where and how. Not a word was said, but soft sounds were heard from each of us. When we did come, it really was a magical, fantasy kind of feeling.

I slowly withdrew, kissing my way down her heaving breasts. I licked at the musky beads of sweat that gathered between her tits; and I saw my own cum on the lips of her cunt. My searching tongue slowly opened the lips of her pussy, and we felt a rush of pleasure again. Her cunt muscles pulsed around my lips, responding to the pressure of my tongue. She took me by the hair and pulled me up to her mouth, her perspiring body sliding underneath me.

The first touch of her mouth on the tip of my cock caused my hard-on to rise again, not stiff and hard at first but slowly and surely returning to life faster than it usually does. I wasn't really timing it, understand. As I felt the force of my dick growing larger and stronger inside her, we were both swept into the timeless notion of total pleasure. She throbbed and convulsed slightly, holding tight to the bedposts. I reached out and pinned her wrists together, pressing down onto her and extending our two sweating bodies into one.

Magic? Circumstance? Luck? Everyday occurrence? How is it with you?

However it may be it quite likely is the result of something new or different from your usual pattern. Or maybe your usual pattern is enough to send you both into constantly consistent orgasms in various quantities. That's great, if that's the case. But even if it is, perhaps it could be even better. Couldn't it?

Who says you should think in terms of one orgasm, or two or more? And who's to say that two are any better than one really big “Big O?” Nobody of course except you and your partner. You might want to go on and on, but you really aren’t able to. Or maybe your partner needs to go on quite a bit longer than you before he or she can achieve a really mind-blowing orgasm. And maybe you are both achieving orgasms that aren’t explosive, tingling and electric and bolts of lightning with a symphony orchestra playing in your head.

Just as no two people are necessarily aroused to orgasm (no matter how many) the same way, orgasms don’t make everybody feel exactly the same way. In fact, as my girlfriend confessed, doing it to yourself may be more intense and concentrated than with a partner.

But with a partner there is so much more pleasure potential than your fingers or a vibrator can hope to provide. So it even happens to the same person in different ways in different circumstances and times. When you consider the complex variations that occur with two different people, the possibilities for orgasms of different levels and quantities are infinite!

While no guarantees are ever present or possible, here are a few suggestions that might help you get started on your own particular path:

Try alternating your attentions from concentration on the pubic areas to the rest of the body, then back to the genital area. Suggest to your partner that you want to totally serve and pleasure him or her while they are totally passive and just enjoying the sensations you give them. Then concentrate on giving sensations that you would like to feel, in the way that they might be given to you.

Another approach is to ease apart during fucking and go down with some heavy oral sex until you sense a change in your partner’s responses, then return to penetration in a different position with different angles and stimuli. (This is particularly helpful if the guy has a tendency to come a lot sooner than the woman and the result can be delayed but heightened—and multiple—climaxes for both partners.)

Yet another approach is to talk sexy and honestly at the same time, telling your partner what he or she does that really turns you on. That way you not only communicate your desires but also release some of the inhibitions that may be keeping you from coming in the first place.

Just concentrate on the real needs. Involve yourself in the sounds and smells of your partner’s body as your passions rise, and let yourself go to the real pleasures of sex. The only real key to coming again (or even once if you have problems with that) is that you have to be more involved than in just getting yourself off. Just imagine what you would like to have done to you, and then give that to your partner. You might both be surprised.

If you just can’t come, or seem unable to have more than one, don’t let it worry you. If passion and pleasure are served, and you feel satisfied with each other, then who’s counting? And if once is not enough, try it again. Chances are, the second time will lead to three, four, or...? Actually, if it’s that good, who’s counting at a time like that anyway?

Jersey Toss Off

The crowd was going bonkers, filling the packed arena with thunderous applause as Danny Gilly, star player of my hometown's professional indoor soccer team, removed his jersey, whirled the thing over his head like a lasso, and tossed it into the stands.

His last second goal had won the game, propelling the team into the top spot in their division.

Clapping and cheering, I watched with amazement as the jersey arched over the Plexiglas wall, arched and soared and spun, then landed right on my shoulder!

I couldn't believe it! Hell, my attending the game had been a last minute thing; this after my boyfriend had cancelled our date at the last minute.

The jersey would look great in my apartment. I imagined it framed on my wall. The ultimate conversation piece, for sure. As for my boyfriend—well, Keith was going to be awfully jealous. He was a huge indoor soccer fan. Gilly was his favorite player.

Serves him right, I reasoned, for backing out of our date. He had been doing that a lot lately, so much so that I suspected he might have a side piece.

Clutching the jersey protectively, I filed out of the arena with the rest of the jubilant spectators. It was a slow-going affair as the pivotal game had attracted a capacity crowd.

And then I saw him.

At first I did a double-take, certain that my eyes had deceived me. But no. It was him. Keith. And he wasn't alone. A blonde bimbo held his arm. She whispered in his ear. Keith was all smiles. He must've liked what she had told him. I could only imagine.

Of course I was furious. My suspicions about his two-timing ways had been confirmed. Turns out he was a lying louse, a total creep.

He hadn't seen me. I thought about confronting him, but decided against this. I was in no mood for an ugly scene. There would be plenty of time for that later.

Seeking fresh air, I barged through the slow-moving crowd in a huff. By the time I reached my car in the parking lot I no longer even cared about the jersey.

But that would change, quickly.

Sitting behind the wheel on the outer fringes of the dark parking lot, I took several deep breaths and started to relax. The smell hit me soon enough, the unmistakable odor of man sweat. Gilly's jersey . . .

The smell was strong inside the confines of my compact car, strong yet far from unpleasant. Man sweat had always turned me on. Big time. And now, angry with Keith—just thinking about him and his blonde bimbo made my blood boil—I felt an overwhelming desire to vent.

I raised the jersey to my face, inhaling Gilly's pungent aroma as I lifted the hem of my sundress. I slid my other hand inside my panties and went to work. Recalling his athletic physique when he had removed his jersey, his muscular chest and six-pack abs, I lifted my feet, pressing the soles of my leather sandals against the dashboard while strumming my snatch.

Images of the soccer star's hot body coupled with his potent-smelling jersey spurred my fingers to a frenzied frigging. Panting and moaning, I experienced a wonderfully satisfying orgasm which lessened the sting of Keith's betrayal.

A month had passed since the night of the jersey toss. Keith was history. Having long-since dumped the jerk, I was feeling better and better with each passing day.

Now, returning to my apartment after a long day at work, my spirits soared when I saw the small package inside my mail box. It was from Danny Gilley. I couldn't have been happier. I slammed the door behind me and opened the package with much haste.

As expected, it was the jersey, the one I had mailed to the team's front office—ATTN: Danny Gilley—along with a polite request for the star to grace the article with his signature. He had granted my wish, signing his name across the front of the jersey with a black marker.

It was a serious collectible now. What with his John Hancock and all, I had no doubt that the jersey could fetch a hefty sum from a diehard indoor soccer fan.

Not that I intended to sell the thing... Hell no.

The jersey had become an indispensable part of my masturbatory routine.

And downright ripe by now. Gilley must've thought I was a real slob for failing to wash it after all this time. I could see him now, grimacing with disgust as he had applied his signature. Thankfully he had toughed it out and granted my wish anyway.

Of course I'm sure my panties had something to do with this, the used ones I had mailed with the jersey as a token of my immense gratitude and appreciation.

Holiday Brunch

The holidays are always a royal pain in my family. My three older siblings bring their families back home, where I still live with our parents. The house, which isn't exactly small, is suddenly bursting at the seams with so many people running around, and I'm usually left to be the cleanup crew for everything since I still live there, and my parents seem to think it's my way of earning my keep. Not exactly fair, but whatever. I'm in my second year of college, and it won't be long before I move on.

This year was even more crowded because my sister got married and brought her new husband along. I can't deny that I was a bit jealous when she landed him; he was the definition of hot. However, with thick and heavy arms and legs, he was still incredibly fit and toned with a shirt that always seemed too tight. Most of the time, I tried to avoid his bright blue eyes and smile, preferring that he believed that I just hated him to thinking that I was checking him out every chance I could get. But now, with everyone jammed into the house, there wasn't any way for me to avoid him.

It happened as my mom was making brunch for everyone about halfway through the holiday. Everyone was starting to get on everyone else's nerves, and I finally gave up and went to my room. Soon, there was a knock at my door. I told my mother I wasn't interested in brunch, but the door opened anyway.

I was surprised to see my new brother-in-law standing there. I just froze when I saw him. Our eyes locked together, and there wasn't any way I could hide from him. I tried to curl my petite form into a scared ball. He smiled sheepishly at me through his light beard and asked if he should come back another time. I don't even remember shaking my head because the next thing I knew, he closed the door and slid into my desk chair.

We talked for a while. He didn't come from a large family, and mine was a tough one to start with. At some point, he moved over onto the bed with me, and eventually, we found our lips locked together. As soon as it happened, our eyes met, like we were both having an unspoken battle within ourselves, but all it took was those eyes, and I was sold.

He wrapped his thick arms around my small frame, gently laying me down on the bed as though my light body were precious to him. He fanned out my golden blonde hair and started kissing me up and down my face and neck. Quickly, he got my shirt off, revealing my small, perky breasts, and started making out with them, using his fingers on the nipple he wasn't focused on.

He was quick and nimble to move over my body with his tongue and lips, yet he still seemed to be taking his time. It felt like he was trying to taste and touch every bit of me, and I wasn't about to give him up. I moaned softly, prompting a warning look that only sent another rush of energy through me as I remembered that we were hiding. Instead, I squirmed under his touch, feeling his crotch, rubbing up into it, and enjoying the look on his face as his dick grew between us.

I told him I wanted him, that I had since met him. He gave me a soft kiss and slid me out of my pants, back to work with his mouth first, diving into my crotch and letting his tongue start lashing all around my hot, wet pussy. He finally had to reach up and put a pair of his fingers in my mouth to keep me quiet, and I happily sucked on his fingertips as he lubed me up.

Without warning, he quickly sat up and slid himself into me. My eyes rolled back as floods of ecstasy and energy rushed through me. I couldn't believe how deep he could go or how much he made himself throb. I threw myself into him, wanting it harder and faster, but he took his time. He took my wrists and pinned them above my head with one hand while the other gently covered my mouth.

Hunger and desire flared through us, and I lunged at him, past his hand, and found his mouth, locking lips as I felt him unleash deep inside me with a deep grunt that I met with a moaning scream. And somewhere in the house, the champagne cork couldn't have popped at a better moment. The craziness around the house didn't die down the rest of the week, but at least I knew there was someone I could vent with.

— Michelle G., Austin, TX
